

When still not known: Denglish with Oettinger

Beitrag von „alias“ vom 29. Januar 2010 18:39

Dont't you please misapple our former countryfather! He speaks English as well as our cultureminister and this is responsible for the education of all countrychildren of Baden-Württemberg - so for the former countryfather too.

And the education in Baden-Württemberg is the best in europe. So his english can't be so bad.

We are locking forward, that with the help of Oettinger Suebian will become a new officespeech in the european community - as well as english, polish, french switzerdeutsch and all the other dialects in Europe.

Then nobody will laugh anymore on our countryfather, when he speaks in his used language! Then you have to spitz your ears and listen carefully!

This speech was only a training for you, folks, to have no problems in future in understanding the ghostlightnings of our new energycomissioner.

Listen and behave!
