

Engischlehrer - Business English

Beitrag von „spzhn“ vom 26. Januar 2018 12:17

The Niederrhein University of Applied Sciences with over 14,000 students studying at 10 different faculties in Krefeld and Mönchengladbach is one of the largest in Germany. With over 150 years of tradition and 70 degree programmes to choose from, we enjoy a national and international reputation.

The Language Centre at the University of Applied Sciences is responsible for over 200 language courses each year.

We are currently looking for Business English Teachers to join our team on a freelance basis. The business English courses usually comprise 30-60 teaching hours per semester; each course takes place on a fixed day and time during the semester. We offer small groups, motivated participants and pre-designed course material for each course.

Requirements:

- A university degree
- Experience in teaching business English or teaching English as a foreign language
- Interest in business-related issues
- Native speaker or native speaker level of English

Motivated applications from different fields are welcome.

For further information please contact sbuerkle@hsnr.de

Interested candidates are requested to send a letter of application and CV by email to Simone Gebhardt-Bürkle, sbuerkle@hsnr.de