Mir fallen gerade noch zwei Links zu meinem Beitrag ein:

1. Kognitive Dissonanz: Song von Tower of Power, 1976; erschreckend aktuell...

Can't Stand To See The Slaughter

Chorus

I can't stand to see the slaughter but still I eat the meat I can't stand dishonest people but still sometimes I cheat I can't stand that air pollution but still I drive a car Maybe them's the reasons why things is like they are

It's a paradox, it's Pandora's box
Is it ecology, or the economy?

Chorus

It's a true-life drama
It's a heavy trauma
Is it a matter of need or just a matter of greed?

Chorus

Scientific research with a little bit of help from the church Maybe there's a cure but it's not for sure

Chorus
