This was was originally a Peruvian folk melody called "Paso Del Condor," which was written by Jorge Milchberg, who is head of the group Urubamba, formerly known as Los Incas. Simon became friendly with the group through this song, and ended up touring with them and producing their first American album. Paul Simon personalized the song by adding his own English lyrics. So hast du schon mal den original Titel mit dem du weitersuchen könntest.

ob es allerdings außer dem englischen Garfunkel Text da einen spanischen gibt weiß ich auch nicht.
