

Gendern in den Abiturklausuren in NRW

Aus meinem Englischunterricht:

Max: "We visited London during the break. It was great. But my friend started having stomach pain, so we had to go to the doctor."

Nadine: "Were they (= the doctor) able to help you?"

("They", da Geschlecht für Nadine unbekannt.)

Max: "Yes, she was very helpful. It was just a stomach bug."

("She", da Max das Geschlecht kannte.)

So schwer ist das wirklich nicht.
