UK worker shortage: Farmers give fruit and veg away for free

1 September 2021

"[...] Mr Morritt said in previous years the majority of his pickers came from eastern Europe.

In 2020, he had relied on furloughed workers and university students but this year he said "the shortage of labour has made it unviable".

To stop the fruit going to waste he allowed members of the public to pick it for free. [...]"
