Zitat von PaPo

"[...] A nonbinary individual would most likely use they/them pronouns instead of he/him or she/her. I use they/them. [...] My deadname represents the box that I've been stuffed in since the moment I've been born—female. [...] Soon after I came out to my parents as nonbinary, I changed it. [...]"

Die erste Hervorhebung leitet doch in die Irre. Da steht doch im Grunde "Ich bin nicht weiblich", du machst daraus dann sie.
